

Osaka Prefecture University International House Application Guidelines for Residence from March 2017 (International Students)

OPU International house has started its operation at the western part of Nakamozu Campus in Spring, 2015. A Japanese student and International students live together in a self-contained unit like a shared house while having their own private rooms.

Applications for housing are invited from international students scheduled to enroll at OPU in the First Semester of Academic Year 2017-2018 and international students currently enrolled at OPU. Details are indicated below:

1. Eligibility

■ International students who are definitely or tentatively scheduled to enroll at OPU in the First Semester of Academic Year 2017-2018 (starting April 2017) and who have obtained or expected to obtain "Student" (Ryugaku) resident status in Japan.

* Applicants will be required to present a document certifying their scheduled admission to OPU.

■ International students currently enrolled at OPU

2. Number of Vacancies

18 rooms (※We will stop accepting applications once all places are taken.)

* Each self-contained unit consists of four same-gender single rooms, with a kitchen, dining room, shower room, and toilet shared among the four residents.

* Each single room is furnished with a bed, desk and other necessary furniture. (See reverse)

3. Period of Residence and Date of Move-in, Move-out

Residents are allowed to live at International House for a maximum of one year. The extension of residence shall be acceptable up to another year if rooms are available.

The Dates of Move-in, Move-out are indicated below.

※Since it is not the last day of the month, please be careful with the dates indicated below as "Date of Move-out."

Your term of residence	Date of Move-in	Date of Move-out
The First semester	March 30	September 15
The First semester and the Second Semester	March 30	March 25 next year

4. Rent and Other Charges (Monthly)

Rent	Common-area charge (including utility costs)	Total
29,000 yen	8,800 yen	37,800 yen

* In addition to the above fees, residents must pay a deposit of 37,800 yen when moving in.

* The deposit paid will be used for the rent and common-area charge for the month in which the resident moves out.

* Rent and charges should be paid from April; there is no need to pay for March.
